2010 Spring Bible Classes | March April May | Sundays 9:30 am & Wednesdays 7:00 pm

• Sundays 9:30 am Class 1 •

The Unexpected Adventure

Led by Mark Finn
Upstairs Auditorium

Come and study The Unexpected Adventure: Taking Everyday Risks to Talk With People About Jesus by Lee Strobel and Mark Mittelberg. The name of the book says it all! Are you willing to take everyday risks to talk with people about Jesus? Than this class is for you.

We will look at practical ways to share our faith in the course of life. "Here's an energetic and engaging guide to everyday steps you can take to influence others for Christ." What used to seem "scary and daunting" will become "an exciting and doable adventure."

• Sundays 9:30 am Class 2 •

The Book of Joshua

Led by Tony Ceraso Jr.
Downstairs Fellowship Hall

Joshua. A man of vision, a warrior, a patriot, and a family man. "With the Lord on our side, we can take the land!" "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!" "Are you for us or for our enemies?"

Joshua. Come only if you are prepared to meet a real man of God. But be warned, a real man of God demands personal change! So bring your warm coffee, but he will be in the fields. Enjoy the comfortable seats, but he may make you squirm in them.

• Wednesdays 7:00 pm Class •

The Letters of 1 & 2 Peter

Led by Matt Fortunato
Upstairs Auditorium

How do Christians live in an un-Christian world? Holy amidst unholiness? Peaceful amidst persecution? Stable amidst chaos? Hopeful amidst hurt? How do we be "strangers in the world?" Come see how our sufferings connect us with Jesus. Come see how the Lord accepts what the world rejects. Come see about hope. Come see how, "You are a chosen people..."

"All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord stands forever."
